

"We learn about the past."

"We compare the past to now."

All children were clear that history teaches us about the past. We learn about people from the past and things that happened.

What have you been learning about?

"The great fire of London started in a bakery on Pudding Lane because they didn't put a fire out and a spark jumped out."

All children were able to give a lot of key information about the great fire of London. They were able to answer the topics enquiry questions very well.

What is History?

"Because we learnt about the first type of fire engine and how they changed we made our own fire engine toy. Mine looks great!"

Cross Curricular

The children enjoyed making modern day fire engines as part of their D&T topic which was made more meaningful from their previous learning about the great fire of London.

The history display in class displays images, key vocabulary and enquiry questions for the children to answer.

"We've got pictures from the great fire of London in the class and questions to answer."

Do you enjoy history lessons?

Each child was enthusiastic about their history lessons and talked in detail about various lessons.

What was your favourite lesson?

"I liked pretending to be Samuel Pepys and being a reporter."

The children chose different lessons they enjoyed most and all agreed their role play lesson was a fun way to show what they had learnt.
