

Technology Vision

At Larkspur Primary School we offer a technology curriculum which inspires our pupils' imaginations through creative and practical activities. Pupils are given opportunities to design and make a variety of products using a range of tools. During this process they evaluate the effectiveness of their designs and end product, adapting their creations as they go. We develop knowledge and skills in disciplines such as mathematics, science, engineering, computing and art encouraging children to take risks, be innovative and think big.

